ADAPTIVE INSTRUCTIONAL DESIGN

It takes a lot of skill and experience to create effective eLearning courses that illustrate the information you wish to pass across. We work on the principle that simply telling is not teaching.

This is why we go above and beyond to create engaging and effective Instructional materials that increase assimilation, boost knowledge retention, and promote skills development at all levels.

ARTICULATE, STORYLINE, CAPTIVATE

Don't know which eLearning authoring tool to work with? Have one in mind?

From Adobe's range of eLearning tools to Articulate Studio, Storyline, and even PowerPoint, we can work with across all authoring tools and deliver in any format.

We also ensure that all course content is SCROM-compliant to ensure they can be shared with other compliant tools and systems without losing its structure. Our experienced instructional designers can easily create course content that fits your current system or create a new experience for your learners.
